Billericay Community Cinema

About us

Billericay Community Cinema started with an idea in March 2015 and premiered its first film in Billericay Library in September 2015. Since then it has been showing two films a month to almost 2,000 residents of Billericay and surrounding villages. As a Community Cinema everyone is a volunteer and we operate as a not-for-profit group - any money is reinvested back to provide great community entertainment.

Showtime!

Film Thursday : showcases a wide range of genres for adults of all ages. This season we have 7 must see classic films from the 1950s. Tickets are priced £5.00. Our evening show has a refreshment stand with tea in china cups; wine, and beer from the local Billericay Brewing Company. We regularly feature additional entertainment, highlight a Guest Charity or Community Group - and create a buzz by often theming our shows.

Family Sunday : focuses on Great Family Entertainment. We have beanbags for kids to sit on, fresh popcorn from our machine and we provide additional entertainment to keep youngsters occupied - our popular Art & Craft table features colouring or making fun items such as masks. Tickets are £2.50 per person.

Bringing Hollywood to our High Street

What is a Community Cinema?

Community Cinemas have sprung up around the UK over the past few years. As local cinemas have closed and the distant multiplexes become larger, expensive and more impersonal they fill a gap in the market by providing local entertainment rooted in the community. Offering a range of top quality films, often not available on the big screen elsewhere at prices that are affordable, their sole focus is to provide local entertainment in a relaxed atmosphere.

Much more than a film

At Billericay Community Cinema we like to immerse our audiences in the film - which means extending the movie beyond the screen. It differentiates us from the multiplexes - and creates a great community atmosphere.

Family Sunday showings might include making masks of characters in the film or face painting. Film Thursdays might see the Library “themed” - at Grand Budapest Hotel we re-created the hotel lobby, Jaws saw a special edition of the Amity Island Gazette newspaper. There might be a talk about the film or additional entertainment - an amazing singer at Breakfast at Tiffany’s, a classical string quartet at The Battle of the Somme whilst Casablanca had a cocktail bar, themed as Rick’s Cafe Americain.

We aim to produce a friendly, relaxing and above all community focused environment.
